

Searching for affordable rent to own homes, rent to own condos and rent to own townhomes? Save time and money searching for an affordable rent to own home with ShortPropertySales.com. We have affordable rent to own homes available with easy financing terms for all credit ratings. Our affordable rent to own homes are available nationwide in most states and cities. All types of homes are available including single family homes, townhomes, condominiums, mobile homes and manufactured homes. We have affordable rent to own homes available for you in all price ranges too; everything from affordable smaller homes up to large 3,000+ square foot houses.

Affordable rent to own homes are an ideal solution for home buyers that are unable to qualify for a home loan. They are also a great alternative to home ownership because they provide increased flexibility for home buyers. Gone are the days of being stuck in a 15 year or 30 year mortgage. Affordable rent to own homes provide true flexibility and home buyers can customize the term of their rent to own home purchase agreement.

Today's housing market and tight lending conditions make it hard to obtain traditional home loans; especially if you have damaged credit or prior credit issues. At ShortPropertySales.com we want to give you a fresh opportunity to own a home. Our affordable rent to own homes can make home ownership a reality regardless of your credit history. If you have a good employment history or income history you are approved to buy our affordable rent to own homes. Get started today by completing our housing inquiry form below and our rent to own home specialists will contact you to discuss available properties.
